

Borghese & Torlonia Banking Mafia

The Borghese and Torlonia families are top criminal banking families and they are utterly ruthless. The Torlonias function as the Vatican's treasurers. The Borgheses and Torlonias are intermarried and work closely together. The Torlonia family are overseeing the United States Treasury through Rome's network of power and also oversee private Swiss bank accounts of the Italian nobility. Jack Lew was US Secretary of Treasury from 2013-2017 and was Jesuit educated from Georgetown. The current Chairman of the Federal Reserve Jerome Powell was Jesuit educated from Georgetown. The US Treasury is designed like the Torlonia Villa in Rome. The French word "Tor" means tower and the Torlonia family have French ancestry. Lonia is like loan. The Torlonia name represents loan tower. The family is overseeing the Bank for International Settlements in Basel, Switzerland which is designed as a tower and is stealing wealth from the central banks around the world through fraudulent tax contracts. The BIS is also financing criminals with pay offs disguised as investments and loans. The Vatican and Swiss Cantons have been in contract for centuries and this is why the Swiss Guard protects the Vatican City State today. The Geneva flag uses a key symbol similar to the papal keys on its coat of arms along with the Jesuit logo. The UBS Bank which was partly created by the Warburg family also uses these keys for its logo. M.M. Warburg & Company has operations in Switzerland. Switzerland and Vatican City are the only two nations on the planet that use the square shaped flag. Switzerland is like a Papal State. The Torlonia family hold titles of Princes of Fucino and they are the founders and owners of Banca Fucino with Prince Giulio Torlonia as a board member and the recently deceased Prince Allesandro Torlonia as the former president of the bank. One of the Fucino Bank branches operates out of the Palazzo Borghese. The Torlonias had contracts with the Rothschild family in the 19th century and are again working with the Rothschilds since 2018. The Torlonia family which are the Princes of Civitella-Cesi are the covert owners of the Civella crime family of Kansas City and co-owners of the LaRocca crime family of Pittsburgh along with the Borghese and Rocco di Torrepadula families. The Pittsburgh crime family was founded by Gregorio Conti and the Torlonias are related to the Conti di Segni family. The Torlonias and Borgheses are part owners of Camorra. Vince Isoldi is a Pittsburgh Camorra mobster known as the "Godfather of Pittsburgh" and he owns clubs and restaurants. The La Torre Camorra mafia clan of Mondragone is operating in the UK and is owned by the Borghese and Torlonia families. Johnny Torrio was a mafia agent of the Torlonia family and took over the Chicago Mob for a period of time. Johnny Torrio created the Big Seven a name of an old mafia alliance. The Torlonia family have a seven pointed star on their coat of arms. Both the Torlonias and Borgheses have part ownership over the Bonanno crime family. The Torlonia family are married with the Spanish House of Bourbon and have part ownership of the Juarez Cartel which have a network with the Civella crime family and are covertly operating in Texas. Prince Marino Torlonia's grandfather was King Alfonso XIII of Spain.

The House of Torlonia of Fucino intermarried with the Borghese banking family of Rome. Princess Marcella Borghese who died in 2002 lived in Switzerland and was in business with Revlon which produced her Borghese line of cosmetics. The Borghese family have established a branch in the United States with Don Giovanni Borghese, Don Ferdinando Borghese, and Allegra Borghese and they own the Castello di Borghese Vineyards in Long Island. Prince Francesco Borghese and his son Prince Lorenzo Borghese who was on the show the Bachelor also have a residence in the United States. Prince Lorenzo Borghese acts as their public relations. Duke Leopold Torlonia is a Knight of Malta. Pope Paul V or Camillo Borghese founded the Bank of the Holy Spirit in 1605 and it more recently merged with Banca di Roma which merged with Capitalia and then merged with Unicredit and went into contract with Santander, Warburg Pincus, and General Atlantic. These contracts ended in July 2016 right after it was exposed. Unicredit is a popular bank in Europe and its headquarters is located in Rome. The House of Torlonia is also intermarried with the Javal banking family of France and the royal family of Luxembourg which are heavily involved in banking. The Torlonia family were a branch of the Conti di Siegni family of Italy that moved to France and intermarried with French Alsacien bankers before returning to Italy as the House of Torlonia. The Conti family had a family branch in Venice where the Warburg or Del Banco family originated just as their Unicredit proxy was in contract with Warburg Pincus. Max Warburg is a top banker in Germany today and works as Managing Director of M.M. Warburg & Company and works as an agent for the Borghese family. The actress Brooke Shields is related to the Torlonias and Prince Giudo Torlonia can be seen hanging out with the Hollywood actor Richard Gere. The Torlonia family have deep connections with French bankers and recently married into the royal family of Luxembourg. Prince Guillaume of Luxembourg's wife is Princess Sibilla Torlonia and Prince Guillaume has also worked for the International Monetary Fund. Luxembourg's former Minister of Finance Luc Frieden was Chairman for the Board of Governors of the IMF and World Bank Group. Banking in Luxembourg is private just like in Switzerland. The ancient House of Luxembourg were the Kings of Bohemia. The Torlonia family are the Princes of Civitella-Cesi. Civetta is the Italian word for owl. Top Conservative politicians have a yearly gathering at Bohemian Grove in California where they make mock human sacrifices to a giant owl. The Torlonias own a villa in Rome called the House of Little Owls. An elementary school teacher named Roxeanne Civitello is a top satanic witch of this owl cult and she rapes, tortures, murders, and cannibalizes children. The actress Jamie-Lynn Sigler from the show The Sopranos who is Catholic-Jewish is a top member of this murderous Wiccan owl cult.

The name Borghese or Bourgeoisie refers to a walled city and the people of these cities were usually bankers and merchants rather than farmers. The House of Borghese have a dragon on their coat of arms and they live in Rome and had dozens of fiefdoms in the Papal States. They are patricians of Venice as well. The Borghese and Torlonias of Fucino manage the Maffucci family in my region with Vincent Maffucci and his pedophile brother Matt Maffucci. The Torlonia-Borghese family of Fucino married with the Del Drago family and their name means "of the dragon." The Del Drago family are a Black Nobility of Viterbo. Anna Del Drago married Prince Alessandro Torlonia of Fucino and his grandfather was a Borghese. Marquis Ferdinando Filippo Del Drago is the current head of this family along with Prince Filippo del Drago-Marescotti and Princess Alessandra del Drago-Marescotti. Drago is similar to the name Draghi. Mario Draghi was born in Rome, was Jesuit educated from the Massimo Institute, and he is one of the most powerful bankers in society as President of the European Central Bank. Mario Draghi is also on the board of directors for the BIS and a member of the Group of Thirty. Mario Draghi, Fabio Panetta, and Ignazio Visco are all from Italy and all directly tied to Rome and board directors for the Bank for International Settlements which is a tower that makes loans to central banks. Tor-lonia means loan tower. Benito Mussolini rented the Torlonia Villa in Rome from the Torlonia family. Prince Junio Valerio Borghese was a naval commander under Mussolini. These banking families are financing and directing fascist secret societies in the United States. The Torlonia family also hold the continual position of Prince Assistant to the Papal Throne at the Vatican City. Today the Borghese family own the Palazzo Manganelli in Sperlinga, Sicily. Prince Roberto Paterno Castello is a member of this family and part owner of the Castellano family of the Gambino crime family. Giovanni and Allegra own a winery and vineyard in Long Island and their parents who both died were Prince Marco Borghese and Princess Ann Marie Borghese. Their parents both died from cancer and a car crash in the same week. It's very possible they faked their deaths as an attempt to escape. Several Italian nobles like the Gaetanis and a few mobsters have faked their deaths.

Prince Marco Borghese and Princess Ann Marie Borghese may still be alive.

Princess Sibilla of Luxembourg is a Torlonia. Her mother was Princess Olympia Torlonia di Civitella-Cesi. The Torlonias are the Vatican's treasurers. Banking in Luxembourg is private. civetta

Italian

Etymology

From dialectal (Tuscan) cioètta, from French chouette ("owl").

Bohemian Grove owl and members making a symbolic burnt offering sacrifice to this giant owl which represents Moloch. Secretly these psychopaths make real human sacrifices and do burn people alive. They are sadists. Owls are mostly sexually size dimorphic which means female owls are larger and more dominant than male owls and sometimes kill and eat male owls. Witches use owls as symbols for this reason. So members of Bohemian Grove which are all men and tend to be conservative worship satanic witches.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Owl#Sexual_dimorphism

Sexual dimorphism is a physical difference between males and females of a species. Reverse sexual dimorphism, when females are larger than males, has been observed across multiple owl species.^[9] The degree of size dimorphism varies across multiple populations and species, and is measured through various traits, such as wing span and body mass.[9] Overall, female owls tend to be slightly larger than males.

<https://www.sciencenews.org/blog/gory-details/some-animals-eat-their-moms-and-other-cannibalism-facts>

I learned my own hard lesson about cute animal cannibals some years ago when I worked at a nature center. We had a mating pair of adorable little Eastern screech owls on loan from a zoo. One day, I discovered the male missing. Panicked about an animal escaping, I searched high and low. Then I noticed a lump on the female's chest. Sure enough, her owl pellets later revealed she had eaten her mate, and we returned just one of the borrowed owls to the zoo.

The Borghese and Torlonia families are both banking dynasties that have intermarried. They own Banca Del Fucino the only private bank in Italy with its presidential office located at the Borghese building. Technically the Torlonia of Fucino branch of bankers are really the Torlonia-Borghese of Fucino through the marriage of Princess Anna Maria Torlonia with Prince Giulio Borghese. The head and Vice-President of Banca Del Fucino is Prince Giulio Torlonia. The Torlonias have had business deals with the Rothschilds since they negotiated loans made by the Rothschild to the Vatican starting in 1832. The Rothschilds are titled the "Guardians of the Papal Treasure" in the Jewish Encyclopedia. The Torlonias are the Vatican's treasurers. The Rothschilds guard the Torlonias which is why there are hundreds of videos exposing the Rothschilds on the internet and none exposing the Torlonias.

Recently Banca Del Fucino began working with the Rothschilds again in 2018.

The Board of Directors of Banca del Fucino approved the integration project with Igea Banca, through a recapitalization reserved for the shareholders of the Roman bank, and examined the main guidelines of the new business plan in line with what was already approved by Igea Banca.

The dealers would be Rothschild, alongside Banca del Fucino, and Lazard.

In this context, even the current shareholders, ie the Torlonia family, will continue to support the Bank in its path of future growth to guarantee the consolidated relationship of trust with customers.

The Torlonia's Temple of Saturn was built right after the Torlonias and Rothschilds business deals in 1832. Saturn is the sixth planet and the Rothschilds have a six pointed star on their coat of arms. Part of the Torlonia-Rothschild deal was paying back the Rothschilds through human trafficking. The Torlonia family own mafias which are human traffickers. Temples have altars which are used for sacrifices and the royals and nobles as well as the Zionist banking families sacrifice humans.
